

APPENDICES

such a way as to safeguard the security of the said forces.
 I: 15 ur*«::sti:i that the presence of these forces on Iranian territory-ri dees r:t :::it.:'.it5 a military- occupation and will disturb as little as possible the limlr^tr-- tion and the security forces or Iran, the economic life :•f the zi jn-'.. th*
 normal movements of the population and the application 3: iraniin lz: 5
 and regulations.

i'ii) A separate agreement or agreements shall be concluded as ^:n as possible after the entry into force of the present Treaty; rerirdir.r -nv financial obligations to be borne by the Allied Powers under tliis -r:- ial:r.s of the present article and of paragraphs ,::; b , c and d of ArJcle :
 above in such matters as local purchases, the hiring o: blld:ngs sr.d pl-r:.. the employment of labour, transport charges, etc. A special irreem:n: -1.^11 be concluded between the Allied Governments and the Iranian Go*, err.ment denning the conditions for any transfers to the Iranian G^'. err.mm: utir
 the war of buildings and other improvements effected by :l:e Allied Powers on Iranian territory. These agreements shall also settle the immunities :o be enjoyed by the forces of the Allied Powers in Iran.

ARTICLE 5

The forces of the Allied Powers shall be withdrawn from Iran;in territory not later than six months after all hostilities between the Allied Powers and Germany and her associates have been suspended by the condusion of an armistice or armistices, or on the conclusion of peace ber-een them, whichever date is the earlier. The expression "associates"* of Germany means all other Powers which have engaged or may in the future engage in hostilities against either of the Allied Powers.

ARTICLE 5

(i) The Allied Powers undertake in their relations with foreign countries not to adopt an attitude which is prejudicial to the territorial integrity, sovereignty or political independence of Iran, nor to conclude treaties inconsistent with the provisions of the present Treaty. They undertake to consult the Government of His Imperial Majesty The Shahinshah in all matters affecting the direct interests of Iran.

(fi) His Imperial Majesty The Shahinshah undertakes not to adopt in his relations with foreign countries an attitude which is inconsistent with the alliance, nor to conclude treaties inconsistent with the provisions of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE 7

The Allied Powers jointly undertake to use their best endeavours to safeguard the economic existence of the Iranian people against the privations and difficulties arising as a result of the present war. On the entry into